HAVOC WROUGHT IN NEW YORK—

HELPLESS STEAMERS, LASHED BY GALE, GIVE DISTRESS SIGNALS

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)

Five ships are in distress on the Atlantic coast, many others are overdue, stores are held in port unable to venture out; seaboard cities are sheathed in ice and five persons are known dead, the result of gales which raged during the last 24 hours. The weather was clearing today and the winds subsiding.

NEW YORK HARD HIT

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—Thousands of volunteer snow-handlers were called to the shovels today to help dig New York city out of its first big storm of the season—a blizzard of snow and sleet which, starting yesterday under moderate temperatures, became overnight an icy gale which threatened to paralyze all transportation.

The storm took its toll of hundreds of injured. From early last evening until daybreak hospital ambulances were bringing in pedestrains with broken arms, fractured legs or cracked skulls, who had fallen victims to the treachery of ice-covered streets. Most hospitals were crowded to capacity and the problem of caring for new arrivals became increasingly grave as the list of injured mounted.

At least two persons are reported to have been killed in falls on the city's thoroughfares.

The wind reached high velocity, combined with the unaccustomed burden of snow, it worked havoc with above-ground power and telephone lines, street car transmission cables, roofs of buildings and large trees.

SMALL BOATS WASHED AWAY

Living organisms in some sections were endangered by falling ice, tumbling chimneys and masonry. Thousands of dollars of damage were believed to have been sustained on Long and Staten Islands where numerous small craft were washed ashore. Along the water front the toll of damaged buildings was reported heavy.

City officials were out bright and early today, in a personal canvass of Bowery "soup kitchens," "flop-houses" and "bread lines" recruiting snow shovellers with which to augment the force of 24,000 advertised for last night.

Throughout the storm some 6,000 reinforcements armed with shovels labored with the city's snow removing engines, but the mechanical plows were unable to do more than keep the thoroughfares passable.

The sleet encrusted the railway tracks so thickly that part of an elevated train left the rails. The snow speed at which it was drawing thru a blinding storm is believed to have saved its several hundred passengers from a serious accident.

RESCUE MAN FROM BURNING HOUSE

Firemen carry Ralph Gerard from Upper Window.

ELECTION DECISION

The state supreme court today on a rehearing held to its former decision that all nominations for municipal offices in municipalities of more than 2,000 population must be made by party primary and not as independent candidates nominated by petition.

The decision was rendered in the case of Thomas J. Connor, candidate for council in Cincinnati in 1921 against the Hamilton county board of elections, to compel the board to count independent votes cast for him. Had these independent votes been counted for Connor he would have defeated E. H. Little by one vote. Connor died Tuesday afternoon.

LOSES DAMAGE SUIT

William McHenry, Jr., lost his suit for damages against the board of education of the school district of Cincinnati in the supreme court today. That tribunal sustained decision of the common please court, knocking the suit out. McHenry's jaw bone was broken by a school dentist, in extracting a tooth.

TAX DECISION

A bequest of $73,497.87 to Harvard College, made by Annie J. Dexter, Hamilton Co. in 1916, will not be subject to the collateral inheritance income tax by a decision of the supreme court today. The court of appeals charged the bequest with $3,673 tax and judgment was reversed by the supreme court.

OBTAINS DAMAGES

Jacob E. Slonecker, Butler Co. obtains $1,800 damages against Alice Von Ausdell by decision of the supreme court today which reversed judgment of the court of appeals which held against Slonecker. Slonecker was charged.

DAMAGES DENIED

By a decision of the state supreme court today, Dora Johnson, Cincinnati, fails to collect $1,000 damages from John Schulte as a result of an automobile accident. The lower courts had awarded her that sum. By a similar decision Mary Aldrich, Youngstown, fails to collect damages from the city as a result of her automobile being struck by a police patrol machine.

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Stock-taking of the nation's domestic business for the past year gives "a feeling of satisfaction" as to the progress made, the department of commerce declared today in an end-of-the-year statement, and from this day's position, it added, "there are no serious obstacles in sight, which should hinder further advances" in the early new year.

Optimism, born of the accomplishments of the past months, which many officials of the government regard as "remarkable" strengthening of the economic fabric, is evident throughout the statistics and details of the statement which noted that the production of manufactured commodities averaged fifty per cent larger than in 1921. The farmer received approximately seventeen per cent more for his products than in 1921 and the total volume of agricultural products was worth a much greater sum than that of a year ago.

FOREIGN CONDITIONS

"The unofficial conditions in foreign countries particularly in Europe, however," the statement continued, "are still depressing our trade and to some extent, have no doubt, kept the prices of agricultural products below the level of other commodities. But within the past two months, this latter condition has been relieved to some extent."

While dealing only briefly with foreign trade, the review said that American exports had dropped 16 per cent as compared with last year, but the comparison was on a basis of eleven months and, in addition, represented a "long climb."

COFFIN REPLACES

Sequel to Mysterious Death of New York Girl

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)

The City of Cleveland may be without natural gas after May 1, 1923.

The state supreme court today in a decision reversing the Cuyahoga court of appeals, held that the Miller law, enacted by the legislature two years ago, which provided that no public utility could discontinue service in a municipality without first obtaining the approval of the state public utilities commission, is unconstitutional insofar as it applies to existing contracts and franchises and therefore the East Ohio Gas Company has right to discontinue its service if it so desires.

RATE AUTHORITY

The court also held that the gas company is authorized to charge the rates which it has filed with the state public utilities commission and that the court of appeals was without authority to fix a rate pending litigation of the disputed question. The court of appeals also was directed to release the company's bond which it required it to furnish by reason of its collecting a higher rate than the 45 cent rate fixed by the appellate court. The city is enjoined from attempting to put into effect its December 1920 ordinance fixing the rate at 35 cents per thousand feet.

In dissolving the injunction granted the city by the appellate court restraining the gas company from withdrawing its service, the supreme court took cognizance of the suffering such a withdrawal at this season of the year might bring upon the citizens of the city and extended the date at which the gas company might discontinue its service to May 1, 1923.

The court's decision is said to be a distinct blow to home rule charter cities in that it practically strips them of any control whatsoever over utility regulation within their corporate bounds.

ADA—(Associated Press)

Criminal negligence is charged against B. J. Frey, watchman at the Gilbert-st. Pennsylvania Railroad crossing here as a result of the accident December 21, which resulted in the death of three school children in an affidavit filed with Mayor Sosley Friday by County Coroner Arthur Hall.

Frey's arrest is asked. Coroner Hall in his verdict also charges the railroad company with carelessness and negligence in overworking the watchman and declared two men should be on duty at the crossing instead of one.

The children killed were Emerson Hull, 16; Katherine Hull, 14 and Imogene Hedrick, 14. They were caught in a buggy between the crossing gates just as a fast train was passing thru.

AUTO LICENSE PLATES
BRING FUND OF $12,000

More than $12,000 worth of auto license plates have been sold to Alen-co motorists by the Lima Automobile club. Upward of 1,000 motor car owners have been served and the total is mounting higher daily. J. E. Heffner, club manager, asserted Friday.

LICENSE PLATES ARE BEING HANDLED EXCLUSIVELY BY THE CLUB

Licenses taken out by the Lilly White Oil company for 27 trucks and 23 service cars operated by the concern, totaled $1,000. The amount is the largest paid in by any purchaser to date.

Licenses plates are being handled exclusively by the club, Heffner asserts. He warns motorists to get their licenses before the first of the month, so as to have them to start the new year.

"The car shuddered so," he says, "I thought there were two of them in the front seat."

RESCUE MAN FROM BURNING HOUSE

Firemen Carry Ralph Gerard From Upper Window.

Fire which threatened the life of one man who was rescued by five men, gutted the home of C. John Lecheltner, 223 E. Pearl-st, at noon Friday.

Ralph Gerard, roomer, was asleep on the second floor when the blaze swept the house. Ladders placed at a window enabled firemen to reach him, as flames swept around them as the rescue was made.

The conflagration burst forth mysteriously in a room occupied by John Farantzo, another roomer. It is believed that rats gnawing matches were responsible. Farantzo was not in his room at the time. Fire swept thru the lower part of the structure and into the kitchen, where Lecheltner was working over a stove.

Flames enveloped the house when firemen arrived on the scene. They communicated to a house occupied by the Dan Cox family next door, but were quenched. Two lines of hose and a large quantity of chemicals were employed in checking the fire.

Damages it is estimated, will exceed $1,500. Insurance to that amount is carried by Lecheltner. The fire made the house uninhabitable until rebuilt.

Crosson will not actually step into office until Tuesday morning, but Monday will be spent in moving into the W. North-st. residence as Sheriff G. W. Baxter moves out. Baxter will have a full jail to turn over to his successor. There are now 20 men in durance vile.

RATE AUTHORITY

The court also held that the gas company is authorized to charge the rates which it has filed with the state public utilities commission and that the court of appeals was without authority to fix a rate pending litigation of the disputed question. The court of appeals also was directed to release the company's bond which it required it to furnish by reason of a decision to furnish a higher rate than the 45 cent rate fixed by the appellate court. The city is enjoined from attempting to put into effect its December 1920, ordinance fixing the rate at 35 cents per thousand foot.

In dissolving the injunction that was issued by the appellate court restraining the gas company from withdrawing its service, the supreme court took cognizance of the suffering such a withdrawal at this season of the year might bring upon the citizens of the city and extended the date at which the gas company might discontinue its service to May 1, 1923.

The court's decision is said to be a distinct blow to home rule charter cities in that it practically strips them of any control whatsoever over utility regulation within their corporate bounds.

EDITION DECISION

The state supreme court today on a rehearing held in its former decision that all nominations for municipal offices in municipalities of more than 2,000 population must be made by party primary and not as independent candidates nominated by petition.

The decision was rendered in the case of Thomas J. Connor, candidate for council in Cincinnati in 1921, against the Hamilton county board of elections, to compel the board to count independent votes cast for him. Had these independent votes been counted for Connor he would have defeated E. H. Little in an affidavit filed with Mayor Sosley Friday by County Coroner Arthur Hall.

Frey's arrest is asked. Coroner Hall in his verdict also charges the railroad company with carelessness and negligence in overworking the watchman and declared two men should be on duty at the crossing instead of one.

The children killed were Einer Hull, 16, Katherine Hull, 14 and Imogene Hodrick, 14. They were caught in a buggy between the crossing gates just as a fast train was passing thru.

LOSES DAMAGE SUIT

William McHenry, Jr., lost his suit for damages against the board of education of the school district of Cincinnati in the supreme court today. That tribunal sustained decision of the common pleas court which held that McHenry's jaw bone was broken by a school dentist, in extracting a tooth.

TAX DECISION

A bequest of $73,497.97 to Harvard College, made by Andie L. Dexter, Hamilton, in 1918, will not be subject to the collateral inheritance income tax by a decision of the supreme court today. The court of appeals charged the bequest with $3,673 tax and judgment was reversed by the supreme court.

OBTAINS DAMAGES

Jacob H. Sloanecker, Butler-co., obtained $1,800 damages against Alice Van Ausdell by decision of the supreme court today which reversed judgment of the court of appeals which held against Sloanecker. Sloanecker was charged.

DAMAGES DENIED

By a decision of the state supreme court today, Dora Johnson, Cincinnati, fails to collect $1,000 damages from John Schnitts as a result of an automobile accident.

The lower courts had awarded her that amount.

By a similar decision, Mary Aldrich, Youngstown, fails to collect damages from the city as a result of her automobile being struck by a police patrol machine.

COFFIN REPLACES CHRISTMAS TREE

Sequel to Mysterious Death of New York Girl

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—

A little white satin coffin containing the body of 10-year-old Theresa McCarthy, stood today on the spot where her Christmas tree had been. With her heart pierced by a bullet from a 22 calibre pistol she was found dead in the Brooklyn home of her mother, Mrs. Pauline McCarthy late Tuesday.

Benjamin Prendergill, a clerk in the Brooklyn postoffice, and a boarder at the McCarthy home, who admitted to police that he owned a pearl-handled 22 calibre revolver, is held on a charge of homicide. He told the police he became frightened when he saw the girl's dead body and threw away that revolver and two others he owned of larger calibre. Police say Prendergill has a police record.

Police working on the theory that Theresa found Prendergill's loaded revolver under a pillow on his bed after the boarder and Mrs. McCarthy had departed for work Tuesday and killed herself accidentally, are unable to reconcile the fact that the body was found on the floor in the dining room while Prendergill insists he found the pistol with one chamber discharged still lying on his bed when he entered the house Tuesday afternoon.

ARREST ASKED IN DEATH OF THREE

Ada Watchman Careless, Coroner Charges.

ADA—(Associated Press)—Criminal negligence is charged against B. J. Frey, watchman at the Gilbert St. Pennsylvania Railroad crossing here as a result of the accident December 21, which resulted in the death of three school children in an affidavit filed with Mayor Sosley Friday by County Coroner Arthur Hall.

Frey's arrest is asked. Coroner Hall in his verdict also charges the railroad company with carelessness and negligence in overworking the watchman and declared two men should be on duty at the crossing instead of one.

The children killed were Einer Hull, 16, Katherine Hull, 14 and Imogene Hodrick, 14. They were caught in a buggy between the crossing gates just as a fast train was passing thru.

Hip Liquor To Be Safe In Lima On New Years

POLICE WILL SEEK BOOTLEGGERS

Force Too Small For General Enforcement Work.

PERMIT ORDERLY PARTIES

No Time For Small Offenders, Lanker Says.

Anti-booze lid will be clamped down tight in Lima New Years eve.

As tight as a police department, handicapped by lack of men and overwhelmed by long standing investigations, can clamp it.

The bootlegger will be the particular prey of the strong arm of the law on the festive evening.

The victim of illicit hooch will probably suffer enough punishment in headaches, pains and perhaps more devastating physical disturbances, without extra attention from police.

Officials will be decidedly unable to go snooping around for the person armed with hip liquor. They will have no time to disturb parties where orderliness and discretion hold sway.

Simply stated, law enforcement to the fullest extent possible, by a police department too small to cope with the situation, will abound.

CHIEF WORRIED

Such was the summary of the New Years situation as given out Friday by Chief of Police T. A. Lanker, who admits that the holiday occurs.

"None so little worry for him," Lanker said. "Yet we cannot devote all of our time to both dealing with the small offenders.

"We are going after the bootlegger and the people who let their enthusiasm get beyond the bonds of ordinary discretion."

I know there will be some who will carry intoxicants with them to parties. I know that clubs and dances will use liquor to add pleasure to the occasion, yet my department will do nothing in such places where the people are orderly and careful in the manner with which they handle their supply of spirit," he said.

It is the root of the evil—the bootlegger—at whom Lanker will direct all his attention.

Lima, he says, will be as orderly as possible.

Arrangements have been made whereby the clerk for Paul Landis, city solicitor, will be retained and paid for by the city. It had been decided to pay only half of the salary of Landis' clerk and have him pay the remainder. He receives a salary of $3,500 a year.

Appropriations are being shifted around, it is understood, to make it possible for the city to pay the entire salary of Landis' clerk, because he has absolutely refused to permit his services to be dispensed with in part, it is stated.

What action will be taken by Judge Jackson is not known at this time. It is believed, however, that it will be impossible for him to carry on the duties of both offices at the same time.

Rumors were ripe Friday that Judge Jackson would resign if appropriated for a clerk in his court was denied. However, Jackson stated that he had no intention of stepping out of office at this time, for that or any other reason.

CITY ORDERS ALL WALKS CLEARED

Police Instructed to Notify Lima Property Owners.

Orders were issued Friday by City Manager Blugham to the police department to serve notices on property owners who have been slow in clearing snow from sidewalks to remove the snow immediately.

Patrolmen began their survey at once.

By evening it is expected, scores of summonses will have been issued, requiring property owners to appear in police court.

One block on E. High-st. near Main was pointed out by Lanker as a particularly dangerous and uncomfortable spot. Lanker at noon was endeavoring to get in touch with owners with the view of filing charges against them.

The menace to public security against accident is one of serious connotation, the chief declared. He will insist that walks over the entire business area be scraped clean and safe through the winter.

BIGGEST EVENTS OF 1922 NAMED

Arms Conference Given as First in the List

TARIFF LAW COMES NEXT

Labor Decision Most Important of Court Actions

WASHINGTON.—(United Press)—The Washington Arms conference, with its great international pacts for limitation of naval armament stands out as the greatest achievement of the United States government in 1922.

The new year is expected to bring final ratifications of all the Washington conference treaties, as this government is confident that France and Italy will not jeopardize all this peace preserving work by failing to approve the pacts.

The conference which adjourned early in February after a session of about three months drew up treaties which called for:

A ten year naval holiday in battlehip construction.

A maximum battleship tonnage of 525,000 tons for the United States and Great Britain, 315,000 tons for Japan and about 170,000 for France and Italy.

The scrapping of the Anglo-Japanese alliance.

The scrapping of about 70 battleships.

Restrictions on submarine and gas warfare.

The preservation of peace in the Pacific thru the Four Power Treaty.

A series of treaties seeking to stabilize China and to make the principle of the "Open Door" a reality in the Far East.

At the end of 1922 there is a strong demand in Congress for another armament parley to supplement the work of this year's conference. The House Appropriations committee has inserted a provision in the naval appropriations bill requesting President Harding to call a conference to consider limitations on the construction of aircraft, submarines and smaller auxiliary vessels.

At the same time the Harding administration has come to the conclusion that the United States must intervene in Europe to prevent an economic collapse there and is now seeking the most practical way in which its aid can be extended.

THE TARIFF LEGISLATION

In the line of legislation, the enactment of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law, revising as it does all the customs of the government, may be considered the greatest job performed by Congress during the year. The law was passed late in September, after having been under debate for two years. Virtually all tariff duties were raised, and the bill is now breaking all records for customs receipts.

Other important legislation included:

The act providing for the refunding of the war debt and the creation of the debt refunding commission to the farmers.

Creation of a federal fact finding coal commission as a result of the coal strike to investigate the mining industry.

Much minor legislation also was passed, but many of the legislative problems facing Congress at the beginning of the year still remain unsolved. Altho a majority in Congress favors a soldier bonus bill, it was blocked by a presidential veto, the ship subsidy bill, strongly advocated by the administration, still is pending with its fate in doubt.

President Harding has recommended a huge program of legislation which can hardly be touched before the present Congress goes out of office on March 4.

IN SUPREME COURT

In the Supreme Court, the most important decision of the year probably was the one defining the rights of organized labor, in a case brought by the Coronado Coal Co., of Arkansas, as the result of strike riots in 1914, in which miners are alleged to have caused great damage in the mines, the court held that labor unions can be sued for damages, and that heads of the unions can be held responsible for any illegal acts of the union members, if the act resulted from orders issued by the leaders.

The decision was generally regarded as limiting the activities of strikers and organized labor considered it a blow to its rights.

In other important decisions, the Supreme Court declared unconstitutional the Child labor law, upheld the packer control law, knocked out parts of the Grain Future Trading acts, strengthened the prohibition law in several decisions and handed down decisions affecting scores of state laws.

The government has made big strides toward governmental economy during the year, cutting the federal budget for the next year down to about $3,000,000,000, or more than $600,000,000 under appropriations for the current year.

So far virtually no progress has been made in the refunding of the $11,000,000,000 war debt to the United States. France has been unwilling to enter into any agreement regarding the debt. Great Britain's refunding has been delayed by a change of government at London, but negotiations are expected to open early in 1923. Other nations are waiting until the powers refund their obligations.

CAR LINE SETS UP CASH RESERVE

Unique Method Established by Detroit Street Railway System

PAYMENTS MADE BEFORE DUE

Big Sum in Interest Saved by Advance Liquidation

(By J. A. DARROCK)

DETROIT.—(United Press)—The municipally owned street railway of Detroit, still in its infancy, is financially healthy and rapidly developing into a tremendous success, according to latest figures given out here.

Besides putting back into the property a considerable amount of money in additions and betterments, the city railway department on December 1, paid $500,000 to the Detroit United Railways, applying on the semi-annual payment that falls due on June 1, 1923. The department hopes to pay another half million dollars shortly after the first of the new year. By making these payments in advance of the actual date on which they fall due, the department saves a large amount of interest.

At the close of five and one-half months of operation, the department has carried 304,639,795 passengers, made up of 154,434,189 revenue passengers and 50,265,607 transfer passengers with a total of $8,559,531.62 received as revenue from transportation. The total miles operated being 21,764.822, which shows an average of 38 cents per car mile with an expense of $2,767 per car mile. Non-operating income and miscellaneous revenue brings the total amount of money received up to $8,809,471.12, or $4,047 per car mile, adding the fixed charges which aggregate approximately $450,000 per month and the taxes, as the city pays taxes to the city, as a private corporation to both city, state and county to the expenses of increases in expense to $3,771 per car mile, leaving net after everything has been deducted of $3,276 per car mile.

CASH RESERVE ESTABLISHED

The department employs a very unique method in establishing actual funded reserves. The reserves are not merely a book reserve, but the actual amounts reserved each month are drawn from the active cash accounts in the banks and placed in another account from which the payments are made as they fall due. This eliminates the possibility of using the money for anything other than the purpose it is intended for.

The properties of the Detroit United Railway in this city were taken over by the city last May. Prior to this date the city had already assumed control of approximately thirty miles of the Detroit Railway, known as the Day-to-Day lines, and under its own direction had constructed approximately 61 miles of single track. With the taking over of the remaining properties there was placed under the management of the department 375 miles of urban street railway, made up entirely of surface lines with cars, car houses, shops, power houses and the necessary appurtenances comprising passenger equipment and a suspended railway system.

Along with the control came additional fixed financial obligations, as the remaining lines were purchased under a contractual agreement for the total figure of $19,550,000 with a down payment required of $2,770,000. The contract specified briefly that there should be nineteen semi-annual payments of $500,000 each, interest at 6 percent on the balance; interest payments to be made quarterly and a deferred payment comprising a balance on the contract to be made December 31, 1931, of $7,580,000. With the approving of this agree-

PAYMENTS MADE BEFORE DUE

Big Sum in Interest Saved by Advance Liquidation

(By J. A. DARROCK)

DETROIT.—(United Press)—The municipally owned street railway of Detroit, still in its infancy, is financially healthy and rapidly developing into a tremendous success, according to latest figures given out.

Besides putting back into the property a considerable amount of money in addition and betterments, the city railway department on December 1, paid $300,000 to the Detroit United Railways, applying on the semi-annual payment that falls due on June 1, 1923. The department hopes to pay another half million dollars shortly after the first of the new year. By making these payments in advance of the actual date on which they fall due, the department saves a large amount of interest.

At the close of five and one-half months of operation, the department has carried 204,639,795 passengers, made up of 154,434,188 revenue passengers and 50,265,807 transfer passengers with a total of $3,259,591.02 received as revenue from transportation. The total miles operated being 21,761.822, which shows an average of 38 cents per car mile with an expense of $2,757 per car mile. Non-operating income and miscellaneous revenue brings the total amount of money received up to $8,809,471.12, or $4047 per car mile, adding the fixed charges which aggregate approximately $350,000 per month and the taxes, as the city pays taxes the same as a private corporation to both city, state and county to the expenses it increases expense to $3,771 per car mile, leaving net after everything has been deducted of $9276 per car mile.

CASH RESERVE ESTABLISHED

The department employs a very unique method in establishing actual funded reserves. The reserves are not merely a book reserve, but the actual amounts reserved each month are drawn from the active cash accounts in the banks and placed in another account from which the payments are made as they fall due. This eliminates the possibility of using the money for anything other than the purpose it is intended for.

The properties of the Detroit United Railway in this city were taken over by the city last May. Prior to this date the city had already assumed control of approximately forty miles of the Detroit Railway, known as the Day-to-Day lines, and under its own direction had constructed approximately 61 miles of single track. With the taking over of the remaining properties there was placed under the management of the department 375 miles of urban street railway, made up entirely of surface lines with cars, car houses, shops, power houses and the necessary appurtenances comprising passenger equipment and subsidiary railway systems.

Along with the control came additional fixed financial obligations, as the remaining lines were purchased under a contractual agreement for the total figure of $19,350,000 with a down payment required of $2,770,000. The contract specified briefly that there should be nineteen semi-annual payments of $500,000 each, interest at 6 per cent on the balance; interest payments to be made quarterly and a deferred payment comprising a balance on the contract to be made December 31, 1931, of $1,550,000. With the approving of this agreement the voter of Detroit also approved of an issue of $4,000,000 worth of Public Utility bonds to meet the initial payments and pay the Detroit United Railway for inventories, of material and supplies that were taken over with the property. There has already been authorized $15,000,000 worth of Public Utility bonds to construct and purchase street railway property bringing the total fixed obligation to $36,080,000 after the payment of the initial amount when the lines were taken over.

The first consideration of the department was to furnish adequate service and also secure an earning sufficient to meet current expenses, could be paid deferred obligations including current fixed obligations and maintain the property to as high a standard as possible.

At present the service is considered far better than when it was controlled by private ownership.

NEW LAMP BURNS

94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 percent air and 6 percent common kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, G. M. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 day's FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $300 per month.—Ad.

BORAH ATTACKED BY JOHNSON

Turns Venom On Plan For Economic Conference.

"BACKED BY INTERESTS"

Rather See U. S. In League, California Senator Says.

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Bitterly and sarcastically assailing Senator Borah and his proposal for a world economic conference, Senator Hiram Johnson, California, in a speech in the senate today, charged that Borah's plan was in the interest of the international bankers. He declared he would rather see the United States in the league of nations than in such a conference as Borah suggested.

Johnson, who shared with Borah the leadership of the irreconcilables in the fight against league covenant, turned on his former associates all the venom he formerly reserved for their joint opponents. He indirectly declared that Borah was being made the tool of propagandists and of the international bankers and used Borah's own words to convict him of now favoring American embroilment in Europe.

REASONS FOR STAND.

"I am against the Borah amendment for precisely the same reason I was against taking the United States into the League of nations," said Johnson. "I am against it, because, in my opinion, it will do exactly what thus far, we have declined to do. I am against it because, in greater degree and with posse for an economic and land dis-less safeguards than the league of nations gave us, it will embroil us in Europe's controversies and finally make the United States, after 150 years, a part of the European system. I am against it with either reservations or amendments, for I have been unable to conceive either amendment or reservation which leaving the design would avert the possible injurious consequences."

Advocates of the amendment, Johnson charged, "arrogate to themselves all the world's idealism and sympathy" and taking the case of "superior beings, demand upon the pain of their denial of idealism and altruism to the rest of us, that we follow whatever course they may mark. We decline to enter into the European maelstrom without definite and cogent reasons, upon the mere arrogation of the superior charity, benevolence and altruism by those who would take us in, or because of the denunciation of those who will not blindly accept and follow any suggestive course."

CONGRESS TO WAIT.

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Action by this session of congress to give President Harding a free rein in the conduct of foreign relations is not probable, administration leaders said today.

Senators Lodge, Watson and Smoot, all administration spokesmen, said the executive did not intend to press at this session his indirect suggestions of yesterday that the debt funding commission be given less restricted powers and that the ban on American representation on the reparations commission be removed. They stated Mr. Harding would make no definite legislative proposals, and indicated that for the present at least, the initiative along this line would not be taken by congress.

Administration senate leaders for the present desire to allow the president and the secretary of state to handle the situation. If Europe makes favorable responses to their overtures, the legislation might be suggested later.

Debate on Senator Borah's proposal for an economic and land disarmament conference, was to continue today, with the probability of a vote. Its defeat by a rather narrow margin now seems certain, but it admittedly has resulted in focusing American public opinion on the international situation and in speeding up administration plans for aiding Europe.

Asked as to Mr. Harding's purpose in suggesting that congress might broaden his powers if he did not seriously contemplate a request for such action, Senator Lodge said the president wished to point in his comment on the Borah proposal for an economic parley that congress had refused to grant powers which would be necessary if the Borah conference were to be successfully held. That is, the United States must have power to delay indefinitely the repayment of the allied debt and must be given a vote in the reparations commission if Mr. Harding's opinion, before any conference such as Senator Borah wants called could be successful.

PLAN ORDINANCE FOR CITY MILK INSPECTION.

An ordinance providing for regulation and inspection of milk bottling plants, as approved by the Lima Board of Health, will be presented to the city commission at its regular meeting, Mayor Harold Cunningham said Friday. This action will be taken to lessen the danger from contagion, he said.

STOLTZ CONTEMPT CASE DISMISSED BY BECKER.

Contempt proceedings brought in common pleas court by Mrs. Esther May Stoltz, S. Main-st rooming house owner, to compel E. Carl Stoltz to pay her $500 alimony, were dismissed by Judge Fred C. Becker, Friday.

Stoltz promised the court he would pay up. Christmas expenditures had crippled his finances, he said.

PRESENT BOOM IS NOT RECOGNIZED

Business Activity Now Compared With Pre-War Years

FEAR FELT AS TO FUTURE

Different Views on Economic Situation Given by Forbes

BY B. C. FORBES

NEW YORK, — (Special)—Conversations overheard between different citizens this week, mostly on trains:

"Hasn't Germany got gall? She sold fraudulent currency to other people all over the world and scooped in two or three billion dollars of good money for her worthless stuff. Now when she is being told that she can't fool around much longer without paying over some real money she wants the United States to supply it! The rich Germans haven't had to cough up a nickel. They've been getting richer and richer. It's high time to call their bluff and make them dig down into their own pockets."

"A man came into my office and told me he was down and out and forced to live on the charity of the Y. M. C. A. He said he wanted a job. I told him he was the very man I was looking for and that I would pay him $5 a day to go out to my place and cut wood. He looked at me as if I were crazy and then said, with a sneer, 'I don't cut wood. That's not my job. I run an elevator.' This made me wonder whether there isn't too much coddling of loafers in New York and other large cities. It's all right to be kind hearted. But it's going too far when you encourage a fellow to loaf when he is offered honest work."

to be readjusted downwards. But I believe it would do more good than harm to keep things on about the present basis here for quite some time to come."

"You fellows always talk about being willing to pay a man a high salary if he can earn it, but this is all bunk," said a man who apparently was an employee to a man in the employing class. "You know well that the rule is to pay a man as little as he'll take without kicking. It's human nature to want to get things as cheaply as you can. And don't tell me that isn't the system you or anybody else doesn't go on when paying wages. You try to get just as much work as you can for as little money as possible."

"We are going ahead in this country as if there were no dangers ahead. The business boom here has worked up greater momentum than most people seem to realize. A lot of us are making the mistake of looking upon the war boom and the war time high records of production as normal, and in lines where things are not as active as they were at the height of the boom the feeling is that business is not yet back to normal. A better way to get a line on just how active things are just now is to compare them with pre-war years. If you do that you will quickly realize that we are having a boom in lots of directions, we're having boom in railway traffic, in steel production, in building, in automobile manufacturing, in cotton prices, in the shoe industry, in the silk trade, in hosiery, in cement, in bricks, in the electrical industry, in furniture, in many luxuries, and so forth."

"But I very much doubt if we can keep this pace up unless things turn for the better abroad, and unless congress behaves more rationally than the radical leaders in it threaten to behave." The first thing you know prices and wages will go sky-high unless we watch our step. It's easier to start a rise in prices and wages than it is to stop them, after they get under way, from going to disastrous heights. Watch out for that."

These are just a few samples of how citizens in different walks of life feel about things. (Copyright, 1922.)

This fact alone should convince anyone that the Lyric theater is a real factor in the amusement world and is of itself a forerunner of many big surprises yet to come. ### HONEYMOON FLAT PLANNED FOR BIBLICAL INSTITUTE

CHICAGO.—An apartment dormitory, designed to encourage marriages among its students, will be erected on the campus of Garrett Biblical Institute here.

Proceeding on the theory that married students do better work than the unmarried, and to accommodate the many wedded couples already attending the school, officials made plans for immediate construction of the building.

"We have found that married students at Garrett seem to gain mutual inspiration from each other, and to have an added incentive in their work," the Rev. Charles M. Stuart, president, declared.

The apartment building will be constructed on the co-operative basis, according to plans of the school administration.

Married couples will be provided with apartments of two rooms, bath and kitchenette, at a cost of between $35 and $50 a month. The building will contain a community club room, dining hall and study, available to all lessees of apartments.

RAILWAY MERGER PLAN COMPLETE

Five Lines to Be Put Under One System.

INDIATE THRU MIDWEST

Scheme Carries Combine Capitalization of $105,000,000.

CLEVELAND—(Associated Press) Only the approval of the Interstate Commerce Commission and stockholders of the New York, Chicago and St. Louis; the Toledo, St. Louis and Western; the Lake Erie and Western; the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville and the Chicago and St. Louis Line is necessary today for the consolidation of these railroads into one of the largest rail systems east of the Mississippi river.

Unification of the railroads, all of which are operated and controlled by the O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen interests of this city, was agreed upon by directors of the five companies here yesterday. Application to the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to amalgamate will be made immediately, it was said. Meetings of stockholders to vote on the proposition have been called for early in March.

After consolidation the system will be made as the New York, Chicago and St. Louis (Nickel Plate) railroad. It will have a total mileage of 1,993 and an authorized capitalization of $105,000,000, which equals the present authorized capital stock of the five constituent companies.

TERITORY COVERED

The territory served by the roads affected extends from Buffalo, third Cleveland and touches St. Louis, Chicago, Indianapolis, Peoria, Ills.; Fort Wayne, Ind., Sandusky and Toledo and has connections to Detroit.

The combined assets of the five companies as of September 30, last, total $6,229,000. After the consolidation the corporate surplus of the constituent companies will total $37,456,936, it was said.

O. P. and M. J. Van Sweringen turned their common school education in Geneva, Ohio, where they later were employed. Coming to Cleveland about twenty years ago, they entered the real estate business in a small way. They came into prominence when they invested capital and bankers in the purchase of an extensive tract of land east of Cleveland which later was incorporated as Shaker Heights. Vil-

Development of the property as real estate was hampered by meagre transportation facilities. It was to secure a right of way seven miles long for a rapid transit system that the Van Sweringen interests purchased the Nickel Plate railroad in 1916 from the New York Central lines. The price was said to be $8,500,000. They also built a 1,000 room hotel on Public Square costing several million dollars. The Van Sweringen interests are now engaged in securing land for the erection of a $60,000,000 terminal railroad and traction station on Public Square, which is in the heart of the downtown district. With its completion it is understood they will electrify the Nickel Plate line in Cleveland and establish an extensive commuter service.

HOSPITAL FIGHT COMPLICATED

Feud Appears As Joint Board Assembles In Probe.

ARE DIVIDED ON FILES

Full Text of Investigators' Report Submitted.

An open feud between members of the joint board of commissioners, governing the District Tuberculosis hospital appears as the board goes into session Friday afternoon at the hospital to review testimony presented before the committee appointed to probe the institution's affairs.

Some of the members of the board, at least six, it is claimed, are determined that Dr. C. A. Files, superintendent, shall go. Others, including a majority of the investigating body, want him retained.

Still others are said to be reserving their opinion until they have read over the testimony. One Allen-co member is among those who have endeavored to preserve neutrality in the fight which has been replete with bitter personalities and charges of a serious character.

RUPTURE IS IMMINENT

A rupture of the harmony within the commission is certain if a break from solidarity should be made, it is asserted.

Charges that two members of the investigating board lived in the hospital at public expense during progress of the investigation will be brought up by L. A. Price, Van Wert, who has been active in the battle to oust Dr. Files.

Price intimates that the members may have been influenced to favor

TODAY MAY DECIDE PEACE OR WAR

Final Answer to Allied Demands
by Turks Awaited

PLANS FOR WAR ARE ON

Situation Now Squared Up to Angora Government

(BY HENRY WOOD)

LAUSANNE.—(United Press)—Final decision as to peace or war in the Near East rested with the Turks today. The conference stood peacefully suspended awaiting word from Ismet Pasha. The Turk delegate had a few days in which to reply to allied insistence that mixed tribunals and judicial guarantees replace capitulations. If he makes formal rejection of the demand, it would mean the immediate end of the peace conference, delegates declared.

Meanwhile, the British were reported making preparations to meet an open break with a return to armed watchfulness at the Straits. A British fleet led by the Iron Duke was reported under full steam for the Dardanelles.

The Angora government moved to block any concessions on the part of Ismet Pasha, even in the face of this veiled threat of force. The Kemalists took away the Turk delegates' mandate and required that any decisions reached at Lausanne be referred to Angora for ratification.

LINEUP OF FORCES
The conference, having become a struggle between British and Turks, to shift the blame upon each other for the break now regarded as inevitable, the former have won the backing of all other delegations except the Russians. The United States supported the allied demand for judicial guarantees; France, Japan and Italy stood with Great Britain in the matter of capitulations. The allies have abandoned the idea of drafting a treaty before the new year, fearing an adverse reply from Ismet Pasha may make such a draft unnecessary.

Turkey is now believed to be jockeying for a position from which it can be made to appear that British reticence to give up the rich Mosul oil fields is the real cause of the break down of the Lausanne parley.

REINFORCEMENTS URGED
LONDON.—(United Press)—Reumption of war between Greece and Turkey is considered inevitable in the former country, according to a cable from Athens to the Daily Express today.

Former Premier Venizelos, viewing a breakdown of the Lausanne conference, has telegraphed the Greek revolutionary government, urging that reinforcements be rushed to the Greek army in Thrace and that the 1920 and 1922 military classes be called to the colors, the Express correspondent cabled.

Venizelos declared the entire Greek army should be sent to Thrace, leaving only one regiment in Athens. The same advises report that General Pangalos, Greek commander in Thrace, has entrained secretly for Salonika.

RUSSIA ASKS U. S. AID
LAUSANNE.—(United Press)—Russia, thru her foreign minister, Tchitcherin, today appealed to the United States for support in the soviet fight at the conference against freedom of the straits.

"Russia, in 1923, will reestablish her productiveness and thus reestablish her well being," Tchitcherin said. "Will the United States stand aloof?"

"It is Russia's sincerest desire to secure collaboration from the United States in this production thru an influx of American capital and its spirit of organization.

"In return for that, Russia wants peace. I came to Lausanne hoping to agree with our Black Sea neighbors and save us all from possibility of being attacked. Our hopes have been shattered. Foreign warships will have the right to cruise our southern shore and competitive naval armaments will result but our hopes not vanish.

"Partial naval disarmament has been attained. Universality will come. That is the only solution of the Straits problem."

TED TAKES OUT
1923 LICENSE

Having in mind the fact that the rabbit season "closed" on Monday, January 1, at midnight, Ted is getting in steady service with his favorite hunter.

He is operating legally under the grant given him by his 1922 hunting license, but since he expects to continue his pursuit of the elusive bunny on the first day of the new year, he has already taken out his 1923 hunting license.

Ted doesn't think it fair to be accorded the privilege of only one day's hunting this winter after getting his new license, but he will anticipate the open season in the fall of 1923.

Expectation of continued snow and sleighing conditions, with perhaps some skating, is again shattered by the weather forecast for this day. Cloudy, with slowly rising temperature tonight and Saturday. Probably rain or snow Saturday. Not an encouraging outlook, by any means, considering that the city exchequer is flat and there is no prospect of slush and snow being removed from the thoroughfares where pedestrians must tread.

The weather mascot hasn't decided about New Year resolutions, but expects to take inventory of the situation before Monday.

F. E. BAKER CHOSEN HEAD OF TRIBE OF BEN HUR

Affairs of Ben Hur Lodge, Lincoln Court No. 23 will be under the direction of F. E. Baker, as chief, in 1923. J. T. Glentzer is past chief.

Other officers elected Thursday night are: Pearl Meyers, judge; Mollie Baumgardner, teacher; Sarah Glentzer, sororina; Mary Eckard, keeper of tribute; Fred Barrington, captain; Mrs. Burke, editor; Elizabeth Cannon, inner gate; Lulu Dubler, outer gate; J. W. Biddinger, J. T. Glentzer and Omar Freeman, executive committee.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Merrill Robert Knowles, 21, grocery clerk, 951 Rice-av., and Ethel Bernecke Williams, 20, beauty operator, 951 Rice-av.

Baums were tied in probate court recording the marriage of William Miller and Velda Koller; Arthur M. Burden and Ruth McBride, at St. John's Catholic church.

DOUBLE QUARTETTE OF PAROLED PRISONERS ARE GIVEN WARNING BY JUDGE

"Make good or I will," was the warning sounded by Judge Fred C. Becker, in addressing eight paroled prisoners in common pleas court.

The defendants had been found guilty at various times during the year, but had never been sent to prison. Judge Becker caused them to be brought into court, to give an account of themselves.

Four of the defendants had been convicted of non-support. They were in arrears in payment. Others were slow in making settlement in many cases as promised.

"Get busy," Judge Becker told them. "Too many of you are wearing white collars and good suits and hanging around the pool halls and street corners. All of you are working—some—but not enough."

The eight men in court were: Ray Jennings, Bryan Hubbell, Franz Thompson and Walter Burgess, convicted of non-support; L. Zimmerman for forgery and Perry Leist, Leonard Feckler and Henry Hampt, for larceny.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Vahn, S. Metcalf et, returned Friday from a several days' stay in Huntington, Ind. While in that city, Mr. Vahn attended a convention of the salesmen of the Huntington Chemical Company.

STATE BUILDS STRONG CASE

Latest Volume of Evidence in U. S. History Claimed

MER ROUGE, La. — (United Press)—A million C Bar defense, is being organized today to fight the state's effort to rid Morehouse of terrorist bands.

Some of the most noted criminal attorneys in the country have returned to act in behalf of those implicated on charges of murder and outlawry federal investigators learned.

The course of funds for this glavate defense was being traced by agents of justice operatives to a clue to other members of the mob which fled and murdered Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards last August.

Friends of Dr. B. M. McKoin, former Mayor, were raising a fund of $20,000 to prevent his return to Baltimore, where he is charged with the two murders.

OTHER OUTBREAKS ADMITTED

Federal agents today refused to uncover details of confessions of members of the terrorist mob implicating forty-five other prominent members of the parish. The confessions told of the kidnapping of five men on August 24, and described the slaying of Daniels and Richards, it was reported. Other abreaks of the black masked mob of branding, fear and terror throughout the section, also were admitted, it was reported. The report of participants who have examined the bodies of Richards and Daniels, expected tomorrow will tell of horrible tortures it was learned.

An undertaker who helped prepare the bodies for burial after they were recovered from Lake La Fourche, said today the heads of both men were missing. The broken and bruised condition of their heads, ribs, spinal column and other parts of the torso told of extreme punishment from the frenzied mob, he said.

OLIGUE OF EVIDENCE

NEW ORLEANS — (Associated Press)—Governor John M. Parker, Attorney General Coco, and the latter's assistants and investigators of the federal department of justice remained non-committal today as to details of their series of confessions in the attorney general's office concerning the Morehouse kidnapping case.

The sole intimation of what took place behind the closed doors was that it was an intensive study of the great mass of documentary evidence turned over to the attorney general's office. This record, it was asserted, already exceeds in volume that assembled in any criminal case in the history of the United States.

Attorney General Coco announced today that "the state will be prepared with an amazing collection of evidence when the open hearing begins in Bastrop, January 5."

"All of our confessions were devoted to working out the varied angles of the inquisition. The amount of testimony we are studying is almost inconceivable," Mr.
Coco said.

Adjutant General L. A. Toombs, who recent made a tour of investigation in Morehouse parish, conferred with Attorney General Coco yesterday. After the meeting Colonel Toombs stated that no additional troops would be sent to Morehouse parish for the present, nor would any of those already stationed there be withdrawn.

The four department of justice agents who attended the conference were expected to remain here several days before returning to Morehouse parish, it was learned to-day.

DOCTOR CONTINUES FIGHT

BALTIMORE — (Associated Press)—Further action in the case of Dr. B. M. McKoin, arrested here
Tuesday for the murder of Watt Daniels and Thomas Richards, after they were alleged to have been kidnapped last August by a white-robed mob at Mer Rouge, La., is not expected until next Tuesday. At that time, it is believed Governor Albert Ritchie of this state will act on the requisition for Dr. McKoin by Louisiana authorities.

Dr. McKoin, a former mayor of Mer Rouge, was charged with the murder of Daniels and Richards

TRACTOR, CITY SCRAPER TO CLEAR ACCUMULATION OF SNOW FROM STREETS

Scraping of snow from the city's streets will be started at midnight
Friday and will continue through-Saturday, it was announced by Harry N. Osgood, city purchaser.

Through the efforts of the Industrial Equipment company distributors of Cletrac tractors, it will be possible to clear the streets at very little expense to the city. The snow will be removed by the tractors.

Following conferences late Thursday it was decided to loan the city street scraper to tractor agents and they will do the work under the supervision of C. E. Dick, street superintendent.

Methods to be employed in cleaning the snow from the streets and where it will be placed have yet to be definitely worked out. Osgood said, but it is believed some plan which will entirely remove the snow will be devised.

One plan will see the snow poured into the sewers, while another merely calls for it to be cleaned from the center of the streets and piled next to the curb. It is pointed out however that when placed next to the curb, motorists and pedestrians are added.

The city is not contemplating the purchase of a tractor at the present time and has no money to use in that direction, Osgood said. This offer was made by the company without any strings attached and was for the purpose of aiding the city and at the same time testing the capabilities of their machine, he added.

CHANGES IN TWO OFFICES MONDAY

Crosson, Sheriff and Smith, Commissioner, to Step In

TAKE OATH BEFORE SUNDAY

Two Officials Succeed Themselves On New Year Day

Two new faces will be seen in Allen's official life January 2 when Harvey B. Crosson, Republican, steps in as high sheriff and Dr. Frank Smith, Democrat, who was counted out and then counted in as coroner, at the November election, assume office.

Both officials must be sworn in before they begin serving their terms. The oaths will probably be administered in common places court

Friday or Saturday, so as to comply with the law.

Each official is elected for two years. Crosson will draw $3,200 a year salary, plus 75 cents daily for each prisoner fed.

NO SALARY FOR CORONER

No salary is attached to the coroner's job. The incumbent collects a fee for each case in which he is called and takes the remainder of his pay in the honor attached to the position.

Three others elected to office November 7, will also assume office the first of the year. W. E. Baxter, state representative, winner on the Republican ticket, will represent Allen in Columbus. The salary is $1,000 and the term two years.

A. J. Gray, Republican, re-elected county commissioner, will commence serving a four year term.

Altha a commissioner is clothed with great power, the office pays only $1,659.50 a year and $8 a day for ditch hearings, not to exceed $100 a year.

Eugene T. Lippincott, Republican, will start his second term as prosecuting attorney on January 1. The office pays $3,390. H. R. Trueby, will continue as assistant prosecuting attorney.

ALL OTHERS SIT

No other officers elected in November will commence their terms on New Year's day. Auditor C. R. Phillips will start his second term of four years in March. The salary is $1,250. Harry E. Bothins, Republican, treasurer, receives the same salary. His second term commences in September, for two years.

Others who will go into office in August and September are: John J. Wyre, Republican recorder, salary $2,560; Ed. Smith, Democrat, surveyor, salary $1,907; John T. Cotner, Democrat, reelected clerk of the courts, $2,765.

Judge Fred C. Becker, elected in 1929, still has four years to serve. The salary is $4,700. Judge Jesse H. Hamilton, probate court, also has four years more on his six year term to serve. His salary is $4,255.

FUND CALLED FOR

WEDNESDAY — Bids for a $100,000 addition to the Bindley Home and Hospital have been called for January 15, by Mayor Harry K. Rodabaugh. Council appropriated the funds a year ago, but construction has been deferred because of a scarcity of the kind of material wanted.

SEWERS CLOGGED WITH DEBRIS, CITY ENGINEER IS TOLD BY CITIZENS

Offices of the city engineer are being flooded with complaints regarding congested sewers.

Certain of the complaints assert that water is backing into cellars throughout the city and that insanitary conditions are being seen, engineers say.

Debris left on the thoroughfares because of the inability of the city to finance street cleaning operations is directly responsible for the present conditions, C. A. Bingham, city manager, says.

Hundreds of catch basins are clogged and working at a very low rate of efficiency, but with only one man available to open them, it is impossible to make any headway, Bingham points out.

Vaughn Miller, late city engineer, from time to time warned citizens of the danger from clogged sewers and advised property holders to clean the street in front of their homes themselves.

This advice was followed in many cases, Bingham says, but there were several in every block who refused to do the work and as a result the sewers are filled with dirt and waste material.

To date neither Bingham or the city commission have announced any plan whereby it will be possible to clean the streets and catch basins during the winter and early spring.

THRILLS SOUGHT THIS LOCAL LADY BY NOBLEMAN

English Duke Craving Excitement May Be Disappointed

"KICK" IN SAILING BOATS

May Attempt to Cross Sea in Small "Tub"

(BY EDWARD THIERRY) NEW YORK.—(Special)—Maurice FitzGerald, sixth Duke of Leinster, is looking for a thrill. That's why he's in America.

"Girls," we asked, "him making ourselves at home in his suite at the Ritz." The duke blinked and looked shocked. He's 85—a n.d. married.

"No—oh, no! No, not at all! put in Captain Aubrey Cole, his secretary. Captain Cole said he did most of the talking for the duke.

FITZGERALD The duke nodded again when we asked him whether he was going to accept William Washburn's challenge to a transatlantic race in a 40-foot sailing boat.

"The duke is willing to try anything once," said the captain. The duke nodded.

"Prohibition?" we asked.

They looked at each other. They looked as if they thought there wasn't any thrill in that.

What does the duke do when he isn't looking for "thrills?"

That stumped them. It appeared that sports took up a lot of his time, such as boxing with Jimmie Wible, flyweight champion, wrestling in amateur bouts, hunting big game in Africa and India, and racing auto-ues against trains.

"Oh, work?" said the duke's conversational proxy. "Oh, the duke takes very little interest in business, you know."

The duke nodded. It seemed to be true that he had won £3,000 by going 600 miles from London to Aberdeen in 14 1-2 hours against a train's 15.

Oh, yes, the race across the Atlantic.

THE CAPTAIN TALKS FOR THE DUKE in a sail boat. Now he didn't expect to take an auxiliary gasoline boat. Why do that?

"It is the one thrill I always want," he said, enthusiastically impulsive. "The captain nodded this time.

It that trip gets too uncomfortable—thrilling—sort of fatally thrilling—it seems there will be a lot of vacant time in Great Britain. For the Duke of Leinster also is Baron of Offaly, Earl of Kildare, Viscount Leinster, Marquis of Kildare, Earl of Offaly, Baron Kildare and Premier Duke.

MY FRIENDS: Last week I called your attention to the fact that many of you are neglecting to clear the snow from walks in front of your property. My experience yesterday morning and last night convinced me that a large percentage of you overlooked this duty again.

I hope it will not be necessary for my city government to apply the ordinance covering this matter to the extent that some of you will be forced to pay fines. You have a duty to your fellow townsmen as well as to yourself in this connection. A little cooperation will work to the benefit of all. Let's go!

To the Y. M. C. A. Directors

FRIENDS: Your action in establishing an endowment fund for your fine organization in my city meets with my hearty approval. It is my belief that this plan should be followed by such institutions as yours and hospitals.

Wealthy men should provide sums in their wills for them and in a comparatively short time funds would be built up that would forever be a benefit to our coming generations. I commend you for your forethought in using a recent bequest as a nucleus for your endowment.

To President Harding

DEAR WARRE: I regret and at the same time I am glad the Borah resolution, which you asked to be sidetracked, has smoked you out of the question of America's participation in the readjustment of economic conditions in the old world.

Your explanation that a movement has already been started to bring about a world conference indicates quite a comedown from your previous stilted position on that particular problem. It is gratifying to know that even your hostile administration is coming to see the necessity of such action if America is to have prosperity and peace, but I sympathize with you in the embarrassment you must feel in the premises, when the details of your 1920 campaign are recalled.

As time goes on, the great principles for which you have fought so nobly are coming more and more to the front and like yourself, I have faith in their ultimate triumph.

WITH APOLOGIES

BY OH OH JACKENRIM.
A Page from the Diary of an Antiquated Reporter: I up, to radishes and a rasher of bacon. A foot of snow over-night, and porch lights left burning which I must keep from my wife, poor wretch, who haled me from above stairs asking Had I put out the lights and the cat. Which, methinks, I had not. Taxied down with a neighbor, who owns chains. But not much of a gas wagon. Howbeit, we broke thru the beautiful, noting in the early hour, no street ploughs had at work been. As in the days of Super Zariman.

In the morn, nothing of import, so came Gus Holstein, the premier merchant-prince, and his heir, the Duke of Leader. And Gus much depressed over the misfortune which sent his good wife to the hospital. When they were to have left for St. Peter, Florida, on the morrow.

To Dr. Herb's studio, for the last reel. On the stairway, which in ye olden tyme was the last lap to Music Hall and the Quinna-Argyle dance floor, met Jonathan Vail, the eminent practitioner and young golfer.

Into the Academy for a trim, but Prof. Blunk busied with a Dunkirk from Bluffton. No chance for an hour or more. So, out to Nels Shook's menery, and there cashed my dividend check on Fisk Tire. Greeting too, Will McGuire, the manufacturer. And the discourse was upon the good meals. We got in the old days at The French House, when Will Terry was master. There's Rev. Stuves, the Many tales come to me this day about the noble Charity Ball, albeit I never love scandal gossip. And the booze so rotten these days makes it hard to judge a capacity, without overloading. To the office, and saluted by Sir Walter Peltier, come to say au revoir. He the first carrier boy The Lima News ever hired.

At the B. & O. trainshed, bidding Auntie May-in bon voyage on her flight to Miami. Presenting her too, a brave box of dried prunes and pressed apricots. For lunch, saving her payment of the dining car chit. Which she could ill afford.

Came to my desk some pre-January bills due. And so precocious, I dumped them unopened into the editor's waste basket. Gawd knows these will be troubles enough after Monday, when the long swing starts.

Lunched well with a bunch of live ones at The Spot. And all the afternoon repairing weak spots in my diary of 1922. To send early next week to my binder's. Which reminds me, that after paying my income tax and Mr. Friedman, there will be no chance to go to Cedar Point. Until after the season is closed. I'll rent a rowboat at McBeth's and watch the elite try to drive over the gully to No. 12.

MISTAKES

It is a mistake for the general run of sick people to come directly to a specialist, writes one of a group of specialists, and just as much a mistake for the specialist to accept them as patients. I have seen some ludicrous and some tragic mistakes made by very good specialists because of the lack of perspective. A specialist sees only his own work, and the better he is in his own work the narrower his perspective. There is one garage where they always insist on cleaning my spark plugs no matter what may be wrong with the car. I have seen tonsils removed because of a reflex sphenitis due to tuberculosis. I have seen countless appendectomies, by excellent operators, for functional disturbances. I have seen a nerve specialist overlook pernicious anemia as the cause of a spinal cord disturbance, and a skin specialist use his pastes and radiations on a case of diabetes—not because they were not capable men in their own fields, but because they lacked perspective. Mr. Theodore Layman requires considerable enlightenment on the matter of specialization in medicine. He should be encouraged to regard the reputable specialist as a very valuable expert, if properly used. It is only human that the very best specialists in their several fields of interest should lack the rounded judgment which is necessary for general diagnosis. This deploring of the "passing" of the family doctor or general practitioner is all a joke. He cannot pass. You and I should help the people to find that out before they get hurt too badly.

Should this fall under the notice of Mr. Layman, the suggestion of the specialist will perhaps have greater weight, coming from a specialist. The "passing" of the general practitioner has been hailed by some specialists and their friends for many years, the wish perhaps fulfilling the thought. Dr. John Brown, over 60 years ago, wrote in the preface to "Rah and His Friends" and other papers of his horae subseciae:

"So also in medicine . . . there are now as few family doctors as servants . . . all this sort of thing is greatly gone and especially in large cities, and much from this love of change, of talk, of having everything explained, or at least named especially if it be in Latin, of running from one 'charming' specialist seen only his own work, and the better he is in his own work the narrower his perspective. There is one garage where they always insist on cleaning my spark plugs no matter what may be wrong with the car. I have seen tonsils removed because of a reflex sphenitis due to tuberculosis. ## CLEANUP OF RUM CASES PLANNED

Campaign to Follow Conferences in Washington

NEW FEDERAL JUDGES NAMED

Speedy Clearing of Dockets Aim of Conferences

(By LAURENCE M. BENEDICT)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — An intensive drive by the federal courts to clean up the present congestion of liquor cases with the view of making convictions keep pace with arrests probably will come out of the conferences now being held here between Chief Justice Taft, Attorney General Daugherty and federal circuit judges.

As the first move of the campaign, President Harding has fixed the 21 district judgeships which are now vacant. Most of these vacancies are among the 24 additional judgeships created by Congress last summer especially to handle liquor cases. Three new judges were named yesterday.

STRICTER ENFORCEMENT

If the federal court can balance their dockets to the point where they can handle prohibition cases as fast as other classes of work, it is felt here that the result would be stricter enforcement of the dry law and more severe penalties for violators.

In this way the contemplated effort by the federal judiciary is seen as an aid to the campaign by President Harding to put a check on the present wholesale flouting of the Volstead act.

Authorities here agree that one reason there is such continued disregard of the dry laws is because offenders at present are often allowed to go months or years without being brought to trial.

Chairman Madden, of the house appropriation committee, told the conference today that funds to maintain the 24 new district courts will be provided in a deficiency appropriation bill now being drafted for presentation to the house.

SCHOOL TEACHER PAID 87 1-2 CENTS PER DAY IN 1860-61; $6 NOW IN SAME DISTRICT

That time works wondrous changes as is evidenced by a comparison of salaries paid Allen-Go school teachers more than half a century ago, with the cost of educating youth in these latter days.

In Monroe-tp., the teacher at the Beeg school south of Columbus Grove, received in 1860-61 a salary of 87 1-2 cents per day. The instructor in the same district now receives $6 per day.

C. W. Westbay, 533 N. Washington, teacher in the Highland Park school, is in possession of an order signed on February 14, 1861, by A. P. Swick and William Begg, local directors, in favor of A. J. Owen, of Bluffton, for salary totaling $52.50 for services as a teacher in sub-district No. 2, Monroe-tp., from December 3, 1860 to February 14, 1861, two months and 16 days at the rate of $19.25 per month or 87 1-2 cents per day.

The order was written under the terms of a contract entered into by the clerk of Monroe-tp. with Owen, who later became an attorney, and died recently at Bluffton.

POULTRY OWNERS GIVEN ADVICE BY AGENT RIDGE

Meat scraps used by farmers in the mash should feed their poultry flock should be found as fine as possible, H. J. Ridge, farm agent, advises.

Where the coarser grade of scraps are used it has been found the chickens will pick over the mash, eating the meat and leaving the other ingredients untouched, he says.

By having the meat and grains all ground to about the same consistency, that of wheat middlings, for example, the chickens will eat all of the mash and full egg producing benefits will be seen.

Dealers selling the meat scraps can furnish them ground either fine or coarse, but unless a special order is given the larger particles will be delivered, Ridge said. Both grades cost the same and when everything is considered there is good reason to have the mash as palatable and efficient as possible.

SALVATION ARMY BRINGS YULE PLANS TO CLOSE

Christmas holiday efforts in behalf of the poor were brought to a close by the Salvation Army with a big treat and presents of all kinds for the children, Margaret Bays, adjutant, reported Friday.

"Baskets filled with wholesome food, including chicken, which we sent out" Miss Bays added, "fed no less than 400 of Lima's poor. Our hall in S. Main-st was crowded to the doors on the occasion of the closing entertainment."

A program was given by the children and a large number of toys were distributed. Clothing was provided for the needy, donated by various stores and there was a treat of candy and fruit for the little folks. Miss Bays is grateful to those who aided her in making the Yuletide effort a success.

LAKE VIEW RUM RUNNER FINED AFTER AUTO CRASH

WAPAKONETTA—When machines driven by W. G. Forsythe of Lakeview and J. R. Poole of Lima, collided on the highway near Uniopolis, east of here, in addition to both autos being badly damaged, Forsythe was later arrested on a charge of transporting liquor.

Officers state that a three gallon jug and a quart glass container filled with hooch were broken in the crash. Forsythe was en route to Lima when the smashup occurred. When arraigned before Justice of the Peace Belcher, Forsythe pleaded guilty to a charge of transporting liquor and was fined $400.

Susie Smart's Advice

Dear Miss Smart: I am coming ashamed to live. At present there is a woman, who with her which the residents and are her at all in the neighborhood in which she lives with her son. This woman has been going with a married man. Before she obtained her divorce she was a widow and is now with him. Also she and her son know about his character. She lost a good home due to a similar case. The child was given to her and the evidence was that she was a good mother and tried to help her in every way that he possibly could to prevent her from going wrong, but it seems that the friend with whom she associated, caused her downfall.

I would like to be advised in what way the action and conduct of this woman should be. She was too nice to the child, according to her past and present conduct. We also think this man has no right to stay or visit where she is, as long as he is a married man.

At present the child is in a home where there is no religion and a proper training cannot be expected if he is negligent. A NEIGHBOR. I am quite difficult to offer any advice or suggestion to you as this is a very delicate problem. I appreciate your attitude and know you are anxious to take steps to secure a more favorable uplifting environment for this child. However, very few have been successful in their attempt to advise a neighbor in endeavoring to improve the conditions in the home of nearby residents.

It is human nature for one to resent the interference of another regardless of their sincerity and good intentions.

This woman will doubtless pay or atone for her disgraceful conduct some time. It would be utterly useless for you to attempt to bring to light her misconduct. A woman of her character would not hesitate in taking steps, which would be humiliating or disastrous to you, if you were to intervene. No doubt, she realizes that if she desires to be regarded as a respectable woman, she must conquer her infatuation for this man, who, by no means free to offer his attention.

If you still feel that something should be done for this innocent lad, for the sake of his future welfare, I would suggest that you consult Juvenile Judge J. H. Hamilton, who has offices in the Allen County Court House.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl 14 years old and I want to ask you a question which I think is very important. I was brought up by my mother to trust me but now I am beginning to change my opinion. Every time I start to go to any place she tells me not to go there. She is very strict, not to do this and not to do that. Sometimes it nearly drives me crazy. I love my mother but I feel that I am old enough to know what is right for me to do.

MAE My dear little girl, you are not nearly as old as you think you are. You are still a child and certainly cannot go wrong if you follow your mother's good advice.

Your mother has lived many more years than you and she knows that it is necessary for a mother to properly instruct her daughter, especially when she reaches your age. She is your very best friend and you will appreciate her when you have "bumped the bumps" that will await you some years hence.

GOOD MANNERS

In the selection of stationery, as in everything else relating to social usage, what is fantastic or over-complexious is poor form.

For instance, such a combination as white ink on deep purple paper, while it would attract attention by its eccentricity, would give also an impression of bad taste on the writer's part.

The complete text of a formal note should appear on the first page only.

Miss Nellie CaJacob welcomed a group of friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. CaJacob, N. Baxter-st. Wednesday evening honoring Miss Doris Maua, a student at Miss Parson's School Essex Falls, N. J., who is here for the holidays.

Dancing was the pastime of the evening and at a late hour a dainty luncheon was served.

Guests included: Misses Betty Hunter, Frances Greene, Betty Reid, Betty Bell, Belva Bergman, Mildred Whitley, Harriet Dersch, Gertrude Adams, Helen Creps, Mildred Stillman, Mary Martha Thew, Jean Butcher, Lucille Grancé, Eleanor Webb, Mildred Cook and the honor guest.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stiles, Brice-st, announced the engagement of their daughter, Nellie, to A. J. Nellis, of this city, at an attractive affair at their home Wednesday evening.

Those enjoying the evening were Miss Ruth Holmes, Miss Constance DeKalb, Miss Rachel Silverdecker, Miss Ethel Stiles, Mrs. Arthur Strebe, Mrs. John Kelly, Mrs. Dewey Strasburg and the honor guest.

Miss Stiles is a well known teacher in the public schools of this city. Mr. Nellis is connected with the Lima Photo Engraving Company as traveling salesman.

Altho the exact date has not been set, the wedding will be an attractive affair of the early summer.

Mr. Charles Vossler and daughter, Ada, and Frances Kathryn Laughlin are home from a short stay in Wapakoneta with Mrs. Vossler's sister, Mrs. D. A. Abbott, and family. They were accompanied home by Miss Martha Abbott, who will spend several days visiting at the Vossler home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dille, W. Spring-st, welcomed a small coterie of friends at their home Thursday evening at an informal 6 o'clock dinner in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary, a student at Western College for Women.

A red cathedral candle formed the centerpiece at each of the tables, while a color scheme of red and green, in keeping with holiday season, prevailed in the other appointments. Dainty handpainted place cards marked covers for 12 guests.

The Delphos 1914 Card club will be entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Thomas White at her home, N. Franklin-st. The annual exchange of Christmas gifts and other interesting features will mark the meeting.

At present the child is in a home where there is no religion and a proper training cannot be expected if he is negligent.

I would like to be advised in what way the action and conduct of this woman should be. She was too nice to the child, according to her past and present conduct. We also think this man has no right to stay or visit where she is, as long as he is a married man.

CAPTAIN BLOOD

BY RAFAEL SABATINI

BEGIN HERE TODAY

CAPTAIN BLOOD physician and adventurer, is captured by Royalist troops, while giving medical aid to one of the rebels. He is a relation of the English Queen. With JEREMY PITTS, a young shipmaster, captured with him, he is brought to trial charged with high treason against the Majesty. King James the Second's innocence being he is taken when acting in his capacity as a physician and not participating in the rebellion.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"I was never with that army. I never was attracted to the late rebellion. I regarded the adventure as a wicked madness. I was summoned that morning to succor Lord Gilroy, and I concluded it to be the sacred duty imposed upon me by my calling to answer that summons."

"Was there ever such an impudent villain in the world as thou?" The judge swung, white-faced, to the jury. "I hope, gentlemen of the jury, you take notice of the horrible carriage of this traitor rogue, and withal you cannot but observe the spirit of this sort of people, one it is."

Upon this he proceeded to his summing-up, showing how Baynes and Blood were both guilty of treason, the first by having harbored a traitor, the second by dressing his wounds. Peter Blood looked round the scalped-hung court. He laughed, and his laugh jarred uneasily upon the deathly stillness of the court.

"Do you laugh, sirrah, with the rope about your neck, upon the very threshold of that eternity you are suddenly to enter into?" And then the judge delivered sentence of death in the unchristened form.

CHAPTER IV

Human Merchandise

On the morning of the 19th he arrived at Tantum a council from Lord Sunderland, the Secretary of State, with a letter for Lord Jeffreys wherein he was informed that His Majesty had been graciously pleased to command that eleven hundred rebels should be furnished for transportation to some of His Majesty's southern plantations, Jamaica, Barbados, or any of the Leeward Islands. Slaves were urgently required and a healthy, vigorous man could be reckoned worth at least from ten to fifteen pounds.

Thus it happened that Peter Blood, and with him Jeremy Pitt and Andrew Baynes were conveyed to Bristol and there shipped with some fifty others aboard the Jamaica Merchant. From close confinement under hatches, ill-nourishment and foul water, a sickness broke out amongst them, of which eleven died.

The mortality might have been higher than it was but for Peter Blood.

Toward the middle of December the Jamaica Merchant dropped anchor in Carlisle Bay, and put ashore the forty-two surviving rebel convicts.

To inspect them, drawn up there on the mole, came Governor Steed, a short, stout red-faced gentleman, who limped a little and leaned heavily upon a stout ebony cane. After him, in the uniform of a colonel of the Barbados Militia, walked Colonel Bishop, a tall, corpulent man who towered head and shoulders above the Governor. At his side, and contrasting oddly with his grossness, moving with easy striding grace, came a slight young lady in a modest riding gown.

Buyers came and stared and passed on. Blood noticed that the girl was speaking to Bishop, and pointing up the line with a silver-billed riding-whip she carried. Bishop shaded his eyes with his hand to look in the direction in which she was pointing. Then slowly, with his ponderous rolling gait, he approached. Peter Blood found himself staring into a pair of beady brown eyes. He felt the color creeping into his face under the insult of that contemptuous inspection. "Bah! A bag of bones. What should I do with him?"

He was turning away when the captain in charge interposed.

"He may be lean, but he's tough, tough and healthy. When half of them was sick and the other half sickening, this rogue kept his legs and doctored his fellows. Say fifteen pounds for him, Colonel. That's cheap enough."

The Colonel finally purchased Peter for ten pounds. Jeremy Pitt went to the same master for the sum of twenty pounds.

CHAPTER V

Arabella Bishop

One sunny morning in January, about a month after the arrival of the Jamaica Merchant at Bridgetown, Miss Arabella Bishop rode out from her uncle's fine house on the heights to the northwest of the city. Reaching the summit of a gentle, knobby slope, she met a tall, lean man dressed in a sober, gentlemanly fashion, who was walking in the opposite direction. He was a stranger to her and yet in some vague way he did not seem quite a stranger.

Miss Arabella drew rein.

"I think I know you, sir," said she.

The stranger came to a standstill upon being addressed.

"A lady should know her own property," laughed he.

She recognized him then.

Miss Bishop had heard that this rebel-convict had been discovered to be a physician. The thing had come to the ears of Governor Steed, who suffered damably from the gout, and Governor Steed had borrowed the fellow from his purchaser. Peter Blood had afforded the Governor that relief which his excellency had failed to obtain from the ministrations of either of the two physicians practicing in Bridgetown. Then the Governor's lady had desired him to attend her for the migtress. Mr. Blood had prescribed for her and she had conceived herself the better for his prescription. After that the fame of him had gone thru Bridgetown, and Colonel Bishop had found that there was more profit to be made out of this new slave by leaving him to pursue his profession.

"It is yourself, madam, I have to thank for my comparatively easy and clean condition," said Mr. Blood, "and I'm glad to take this opportunity of doing so."

"And why do you thank me for it?"

"It was my uncle who bought you."

"But he would not have done so had you not urged him. I perceived your interest."

"You did not seem quite like the others."

"I am not," said he.

"Oh!" She stared at him, blushing a little. "You have a good opinion of yourself."

"On the contrary. The others are all worthy rebels. I am not. That is the difference. I was one who had not the wit to see that England requires purifying. I was content to pursue a doctor's trade in Bridgewater whilst my betters were shedding their blood to drive out an unclean tyrant and his rascally crew."

"But if you are not a rebel, how come you here?"

He saw the thing she apprehended, and he laughed. "Faith, now, it's a long story," said he.

"And one perhap, that you would prefer not to tell."

Briefly on that he told it to her.

"What an infamy!" she cried, when he had done.

"Oh, it's a sweet country England wild. He had advised him to come out to Barbados. William came and was admitted by his generous brother to a partnership in the prosperous plantation. Some six years later, when Arabella was fifteen, her father died, leaving her in her uncle's guardianship.

One day toward the end of May, when the heat was beginning to grow oppressive, there crawled into Carlisle Bay a wounded, battered English ship, the Pride of Devon, her freeboard scarred and broken, her coach a gaping wreck. She had been in action of Martinique with two Spanish treasure ships, and although her captain aware that the Spaniards had beaten him without provocation, it is difficult to avoid a suspicion that the encounter had been brought about quite otherwise.

One of the Spaniards had fled from the combat, and if the Pride of Devon had not given chase it was probably because she was by then in no case to do so. The other had been sunk, but not before the English ship had transferred to her own hold a good deal of the treasure aboard the Spaniard.

Steed, however, after the fashion of most Colonial governors, was willing enough to dull his wits to the extent of accepting the English seaman's story, disregarding any evidence that might belie it.

Therefore he gave the pride of Devon the shelter she sought in his harbor and every facility to careen and carry out repairs.

"Why, how d' do, Scramble," the fairyman said pleasantly.

It was Scramble Squirrel who was something on his mind. "I—I hope you're glad enough to see me to be willing to do me a favor, sir."

"Why, it just depends," remarked the Green Wizard. "It just all depends on what you want."

"Well, you see it's this way," the fairyman said pleasantly. "You're quite a stranger. I'm glad to see you."

"Thank you," answered Scramble uneasily and looking as the there I get so interested I forget what time it is. "Then when I go home, Samantha wakes up and she is usually so mad she gives me fits for staying out so late! I was thinking, sir, that a pair of magic shoes that didn't make any noise, and wake her up, might help some."

"Oh, I see, I see," answered the wizard wisely, shaking his head and putting his finger-tips together.

"Will you?" asked Scramble anxiously.

"Ull have to think," answered the fairyman. "I'm not sure that I can. Did you say you went alone o' nights?"

"Why, yes!" answered Scramble.

"You see Samantha's always too tired after washing and ironing and cooking and sewing all day, she has to go to bed early."

"And what do you do all day?"

"Oh, why I have to gather nuts and acorns for winter. And you know how it is. I always meet people and they don't stop and chat. I don't get much use done."

"Well, I guess I'm out of magic shoes just now," answered the wizard soberly. "My advice is to stay at home nights or else take your wife alone, Mr. Squirrel. I'll wish you good-day, sir."

GRID RULES COMMITTEE ISSUES SERIOUS WARNING

TO TAKE ACTION

NEW YORK—Warning that their influence were threatening the game and a good name of football was in the balance, a committee could not wait to be organized in the name of the American Intercollegiate Gridiron Rules Committee for action. Up with the National Gridiron Rules Committee, according to the report read by H. F. Hart of the committee who returned the chairmanship of the committee to posterity in the N. C. A. A. for one year in the hope of getting action to be undertaken at the request of the war department. The latest organization to become affiliated is the National Collegiate Gridiron Association, which took up the N. C. A. A. in the National Gridiron Rules Committee.

Indicating that the American Athlete League and the amateur organization to increase the interest in football, the N. C. A. A. passed a resolution of the N. C. A. A. who said it was expected any action for amateur football would soon be rendered.

NEW YORK—Plans for launching a nation-wide athletic preparedness program were expected to take definite form today at the first annual session of the Lewis Research National Council of Athlete Preparation. The 16th annual meeting of the Athlete Research Council will be held in connection with the N. A. A. F.

Organizations representing a variety of interests have been grouped for another year. Interest in the country is so widespread and so acute that both the players and the athletic directors in the various colleges are under a tremendous pressure to win, the report said. Under these circumstances the temptations are very great, both on the field and off, to adopt practices or policies which are directly hostile to the good of the game and amateur sport, and generally would speedily bring the game into disrepute.

"As an illustration," the report declared, "there have been several distressing and one or two disgraceful instances during the last season of failure to accept in anything like a sportsmanlike spirit rulings of competent officials and of failure to see to it that officials were accorded proper treatment during and after the game. Institutions which are guilty of such failings should be relegated promptly and exclusively to intramural contests until such time as they can give some assurance that they are entitled to once more participate in collegiate games."

The responsibility for proper standards and policies in connection with the preparation for and conduct of intercollegiate sports and for proper standards of play is in the last analysis squarely up to those who are responsible for the academic administration of the schools and colleges."

TROJAN STAR OUT OF GAME

PASADENA, Cal.—University of Southern California will engage Penn State in the annual intersectional football game at the Tournament of Roses here Monday afternoon, lacking a star player.

According to Coach Henderson of the Trojans, Chester Dolly, quarterback and captain-elect of the 1923 team, will not start because of an injured knee sustained in a regular season game. This injury has caused the Trojan coach to make a complete shift of his backfield, with the result Harold Galloway, a fullback, will pilot the team from the quarterback position.

Dolly practiced with the squad this afternoon and ran the second team for a time. Near the end of the drill he handled the first team for a couple of trips up and down the field. In fact, he will be used just enough in practice to keep him acquainted with plays in the event he may be rushed into the fray at a critical time to call certain scoring formations.

According to Henderson, the team will have a stronger offensive punch with Galloway at quarter back, because he is a triple threat player and an excellent end runner.

Villa's title will not be at stake as a price of agreement call for the principals to weigh in at 116 pounds; four pounds over the flyweight limit.

LACK OF SWIMMING TANK MEANS NOTHING TO THESE HIGH SCHOOL STARS

The national intercollegiate swimming champs represent a high school that has no swimming facilities.

Left to right, members of the Central High school swim team at Erie, Pa., are:

Standing: John Harrington, Joe Johnstone, Tom Wurzbach; J. C. Minsworth, coach; Henry Mayer, John Anderson, Byron Powers.

Six seated: Adam Smith, Tom Hanley, Bill Wright, Francis Griswold.

ERIE, Pa.—Central High school up at Columbia University and winning the finals of the season at Princeton.

The Central High holds the national intercollegiate records in the 1919 and 1920 relays. Adam Smith holds the 270, 440, 500 and 880 yards, and is credited with giving Johnny Wurzbach the tightest race of his career at the Put-in-Bay meet. Bill Wright, now at Columbia, holds the 50 and 100 yards for intercollegiate swimmers.

J. C. Minsworth, physical director of the Erie Y. M. C. A., and developer of many swimmers, became interested with the idea of a swimming team for high regulars.

BLESSED IS BOOTH TARKINGTON-IN MOVIEDOM

(BY ESTHER WAGNER) BOOTH is Booth Tarkington. His stories are fed into the movie mills and are spun as fabrics of silk. The usual lot of the authors is that only gods made of their virgin material.

The remarks as called forth by "The Flirt," the latest photoplay on a Tarkington story, Howard Da Silva directed.

Most of the comedy of the picture falls upon the ample shoulders of Buddy Messenger, who plays the part of the mischievous little brother who is always interfering with the shame and poverty. And his sister's love affairs.

Wendell Madison, as you remember, is the main figure of "The Flirt," a Main Street belle who tried to all of the good-looking boys.

Pampered by her folks, she finally brought them to the shame and poverty. And it will be seen there. Splendid, well-chosen and presented unique group of Keith material.

Koban Japs, billed as "Wonders From the Land of Cherry Blossoms" are just that.

Perform various nimble and startling feats, the star performer adding a flight of twelve steps on his back. Striking Oriental settings add to the effectiveness.

Henry Antrim and Company, the ailing act, present "Along Broadway," a clever concoction of song, dance and music, but entirely different.

Bits of the season's most successful Broadway shows are given, including "Alice Blue Gown."

If you're looking for a variety of entertainment, drop in at the Faurot this week-end and see "Irene," a 1923 Folies hit, "Weaving My Dreams," a lovely pl-

o solo and a touching scene from "Buddies," also a beautiful dancing number and other vocal and music

Clever, Laughable Bill at the New Orpheum

WEET DADDY," the current offering of the Thayer and Sacks Revue at the New Orpheum, crowds more real laughter and infectious comedy into an hour and a half than is believed possible.

Mike Sacks, the company's premier, is practically a show in himself, and assisted by Mr. Irving Lewis, a comic foil, his antics and impersonations leave his audience in fits of laughter.

The California Peach Chorus is one of the features of the revue, who appear in special ensembles of singing and dancing numbers. Their costumes are new and charming and an entirely new program on Sunday.

At Last! Bebe Daniels In "Singed Wings"

PENNY STANLAW, artist director, is responsible for much of the evident worth of "Singed Wings," the picture which was slated for appearance at the Lyric several weeks ago, but which was withdrawn by the Ohio Board of Censors. And to say that he has done a good job of directing puts the matter quite mildly, indeed.

The production opens with an artistic and charming allegorical tale, with fairies and witches and was exceptionally well photographed. Just dream, which Miss Bebe Daniels is having, but a beautiful dream, nevertheless.

Bebe, you know, is Bonita, the last of the de la Guerdas, one time leaders of the early California days. All that is left to Bonita now is an ancient house, a party grand-father, and an ability to dance.

Her dancing at a secluded Spanish cafe brings her to the attention of one Bliss Gordon, a wealthy clubman, who promises the fair dancer wealth and position if she will favor him with her love. Said Gordon has a nephew, portrayed by Conrad Nagel.

HELEN JEROME EDDY

EILEEN PERCY

After all of that, the movies reform her and leave her in the peaceful and prosperous family circle in the fade-out.

Eileen Percy, formerly a Fox star, has the rose of pretty, affected village belle, while Helen Jerome Eddy is seen as a plain, un-beautiful sister. Edward Hearn is the director's conception of Tarkington's hero.

SHORT SHAVINGS

C. E. Strawbridge, Lima letter carrier, relates an incident of recent occurrence in which a local man figured, but he refuses to divulge the name, for good and sufficient reasons.

"The man's faith was of the kind that moves mountains," Strawbridge tells, "but unfortunately he married a woman who was somewhat of a shrew and made life miserable for him."

"So the man began praying that God might so change his wife's disposition that she would speak up with the tongue of an angel. He left home one day and was called back unexpectedly by a telegram which announced that his wife had been taken suddenly ill and had died."

"His prayer was answered rather unexpectedly," Strawbridge said.

Charlie Malzen, 1217 Bioco-av., bought a new alarm clock.

"The old one didn't work right," he said. "If I didn't wind it up, right it wouldn't go off. And if I was wound up tight it couldn't be stopped until it ran down. General opinion in the neighborhood forced me to get a new clock."

Henry Kavermann, Delphos undertaker, reports that a policeman arrived at his home one day in a great hurry while he was working in beating rugs in the back yard.

A neighbor had reported that Kavermann was shooting off firecrackers.

"Well, anyhow," the neighbor said, "he needn't have hit the rug so hard."

Joe Cousins, Mauban hotel, undertook to press a pair of trousers, a friend relates.

"The experiment was a complete success," he says, "except that Joe put the creases in the sides instead of the front and back."

over that cut and see how it heals

Little cuts and scratches are aggravating and painful, and they can even become dangerous if infected. Prevent such a condition by cleansing the injured spot well, and then applying RESINOL OINTMENT. Its gentle antiseptic balsams soothe while they heal. A physician's prescription, and recommended widely, — is no longer an experiment to thousands who have used it successfully for various skin afflictions. At all druggists.
